

A level summer work prep

Over the next few months we would love you to prepare for your RS A Level studies.

Ms Devine and Miss Millington would like you to complete the following:

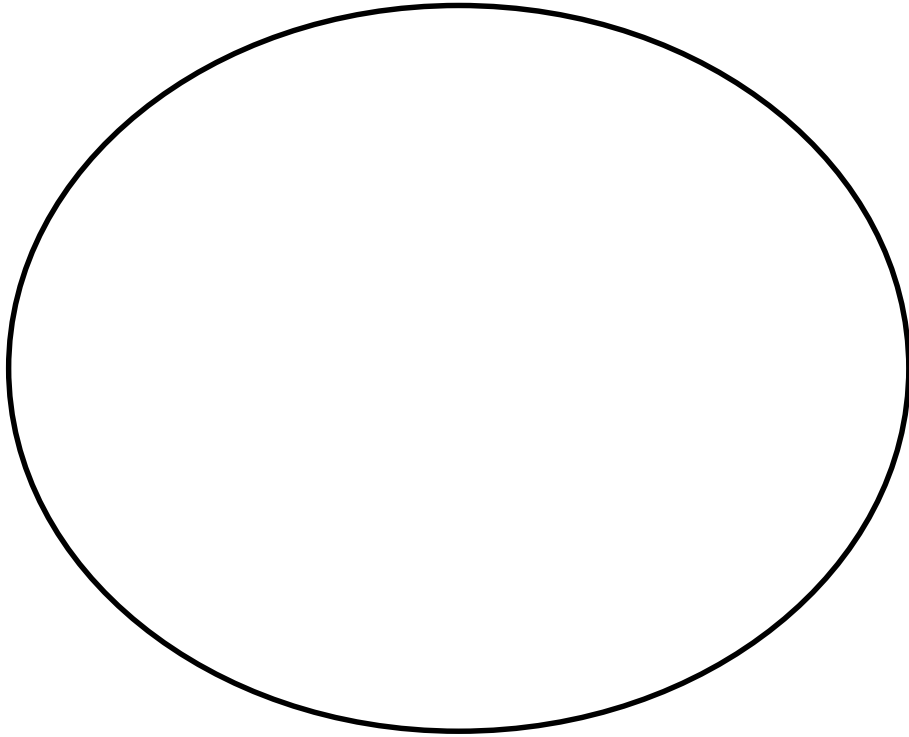

1. Research the following philosophers, scholars and theologians:
  1. St Augustine
  2. St Thomas Aquinas
  3. Dietrich Bonhoeffer
  4. Aristotle
  5. Plato
  6. Bertrand Russell
  7. David Hume
  8. Immanuel Kant
2. Place each of the 8 onto the seating plan template. Consider who would get on well and who should not be sat near each other. Explain your thinking in the box at the bottom.
3. Create an Instagram page for each philosopher on the template sheet (you will need a template sheet per scholar) to show your knowledge and understanding of their life.

Further recommendations

- You may wish to read the book 'Sophie's World' by Jostein Gaardner.
- Access a TED talk called 'What's the right thing to do?' by Michael Sandel.
- Listen to the Panpsycast podcast
- Have a look at they A Level syllabus, example questions and mark schemes here:<https://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/as-and-a-level/religious-studies-h173-h573-from-2016/>

The Dreaded Seating Plan!

You are throwing a dinner party for our philosophers and theologians. Each has requested that they don't sit next to someone they disagree with. Put their names on the places you think they should sit and explain why in the box below.

A large, empty rounded rectangle with a black outline, intended for writing names and explanations. It occupies the lower half of the page.
