A Level English Language – Useful Websites

Further Course Information:

https://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/english/as-and-a-level/english-language-7701-7702

https://www.superprof.co.uk/blog/learn-english-language-a-level/

Why study English Language?

https://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2019/feb/10/study-english-a-level-university-government-taught

https://www.englishandmedia.co.uk/blog/why-study-english-language-or-linguistics-at-a-level-and-beyond

Interesting Links:

http://www.universalteacher.org.uk/
Lots of information on all the different aspects of the course

www.englishlangsfx.blogspot.com/
Provides lots of materials and interesting discussions as well as links to other relevant sites

http://www.ling.lancs.ac.uk/
This is Lancaster Uni's language and linguistics site. They have a specific A level area with lots of resources.

http://www.geoffbarton.co.uk/Contains lots of information about many of the topics you will cover at A Level

http://dialectblog.com
Discusses ideas about dialect, which is one of the topics you will be covering

www.davidcrystal.com
This is a name you will become very familiar with. His website has links to articles and youtube talks

http://linguistics-research-digest.blogspot.co.uk
Lots of articles relating to research on language and its use

http://www.theguardian.com/media/mind-your-language
Editorials on a range of topics related to language use from The Guardian